SUNBLEACHED RESORT

La palette è come una cartolina dimenticata al sole, i cui colori si sono ammorbiditi nel tempo fino a diventare poesia. I pastelli sembrano filtrati da giornate torride: nuance di melone e pesca si stemperano in toni polverosi, come tessuti lasciati asciugare all'aria aperta dopo un bagno di mare. A queste si uniscono verdi marini desaturati, azzurri ariosi come il cielo e sprazzi di giallo opaco, che ricordano limoni dimenticati su una terrazza assolata. I contrasti si attenuano, ma non scompaiono. Gli accenti più caldi, come il rosso mattone, porta profondità e richiama la materia viva dei paesaggi mediterranei. È una palette che rinfresca e rilassa, con un senso di naturalezza vissuta, come se ogni colore avesse una storia da raccontare, scolpita dalla salsedine e dalla luce.

The palette is like a postcard forgotten in the sun, whose colors have softened over time until they become poetry. The pastels seem to have been filtered by scorching days: nuances of melon and peach fade into dusty tones, like fabrics left to dry in the open air after a sea bath. These are joined by desaturated marine greens, airy blues like the sky and splashes of opaque yellow, reminiscent of lemons forgotten on a sunny terrace.

The contrasts fade, but do not disappear. The warmer accents, such as brick red, bring depth and recall the living matter of Mediterranean landscapes. It is a palette that refreshes and relaxes, with a sense of lived-in naturalness, as if each color had a story to tell, sculpted by the saltiness and light.

DECO REVERIE

La palette è un giardino che sboccia sotto la luce di un sogno primaverile, dove ogni tinta sembra portare con sé una sensazione, un ricordo, un profumo. Il verde è l'anima di questo mondo: si muove in mille sfumature, dalle profondità botaniche delle fronde ombrose fino alla trasparenza cristallina di una rugiada mattutina. È un verde vivo, che respira, che cresce e avvolge ogni forma con delicatezza. Attorno a lui danzano pastelli accesi e luminosi, come petali mossi dal vento: rosa vivo, un giallo solare che sembra profumare di fiori appena colti, un glicine soffuso che galleggia nell'aria come una nota musicale, e un pesca vellutato che scalda lo sguardo senza appesantirlo. Ogni colore è una carezza visiva, un invito alla leggerezza. A legare e definire questa sinfonia eterea c'è un accento di verde oliva, più maturo, più terreno, che ancora il sogno e ne rivela la struttura.

The palette is a garden that blooms under the light of a spring dream, where each shade seems to bring with it a sensation, a memory, a scent. Green is the soul of this world: it moves in a thousand shades, from the botanical depths of shady foliage to the crystalline transparency of morning dew. It is a living green, that breathes, that grows and delicately envelops every shape. Bright and luminous pastels dance around it, like petals moved by the wind: bright pink, a sunny yellow that seems to smell of freshly picked flowers, a suffused wisteria that floats in the air like a musical note, and a velvety peach that warms the gaze without weighing it down. Each color is a visual caress, an invitation to lightness. To bind and define this ethereal symphony there is an accent of olive green, more mature, more earthly, that anchors the dream and reveals its structure.

ROOTED

La palette affonda le sue radici nella terra e le tonalità principali sono quelle che parlano la lingua dell'argilla e del suolo: bruni intensi come il cioccolato grezzo, adobe cotti dal sole, terracotte usurate dal tempo. Ogni colore ha il peso e la presenza della materia vera, di ciò che si modella con le mani. A dare respiro a questa densità cromatica intervengono tinte più delicate e rarefatte come beige sabbiosi e un azzurro velato di grigio. In contrasto, due accenti più decisi e grafici scandiscono il ritmo visivo del tema: un blu profondo, quasi cerimoniale, e un rosso speziato che vira verso l'arancio bruciato, come paprika o terra rossa. Sono vibrazioni cromatiche che parlano di calore, identità e simbolismo, e che danno struttura e forza a una narrazione visiva arcaica e contemporanea.

The palette has its roots in the earth and the main shades are those that speak the language of clay and soil: intense browns like raw chocolate, sun-baked adobe, terracotta worn by time. Each color has the weight and presence of real matter, of what is shaped by hand. More delicate and rarefied hues such as sandy beige and a light blue veiled in gray intervene to give breath to this chromatic density. In contrast, two more decisive and graphic accents mark the visual rhythm of the theme: a deep, almost ceremonial blue, and a spicy red that veers towards burnt orange, like paprika or red earth. They are chromatic vibrations that speak of warmth, identity and symbolism, and that give structure and strength to an archaic and contemporary visual narrative.

LOUD CRAFT

Il colore è il vero protagonista: non decora, ma parla e vibra. La palette è un'esplosione di energia visiva, un manifesto gioioso di libertà espressiva che rifugge l'ordine e abbraccia l'eccesso. Ogni colore è un invito a giocare, combinare, stratificare, rompere le regole visive. I viola sfidano gli aranci accesi in un duello armonico, mentre fucsia irriverenti e blu elettrici si intrecciano con marroni rossastri, caldi e terrosi, creando combinazioni inaspettate ma incredibilmente vive. E poi ci sono i colori che modulano il ritmo, come note più morbide in una melodia esplosiva: un rosa pallido e vellutato che sfuma i contrasti con eleganza, e un giallo miele solare e viscoso, capace di scaldare o bilanciare l'intero spettro a seconda dell'uso.

Color is the real protagonist: it does not decorate, but speaks and vibrates. The palette is an explosion of visual energy, a joyful manifesto of expressive freedom that shuns order and embraces excess. Each color is an invitation to play, combine, layer, break the visual rules. Purples challenge bright oranges in a harmonious duel, while irreverent fuchsias and electric blues intertwine with reddish, warm and earthy browns, creating unexpected but incredibly lively combinations. And then there are the colors that modulate the rhythm, like softer notes in an explosive melody: a pale and velvety pink that elegantly shades contrasts, and a sunny and viscous honey yellow, capable of warming or balancing the entire spectrum depending on use.

HUMID

La palette di Humid è una miscela viscerale e ipnotica di colori che sembrano sgorgare direttamente dalla linfa di una natura tropicale, fertile e pulsante. I toni si muovono tra il caldo e l'umido, tra la luce filtrata dalla vegetazione e l'ombra densa della foresta profonda. I marroni sono bruciati, intensi, come corteccia scaldata dal sole, mentre accanto ad essi si arrampicano verdi vividi e mutevoli: dal verde acido, a tonalità più preziose quasi liquide nella loro brillantezza. A dare ritmo alla palette c'è un arancio papaya, rossi intensi e succosi come polpa matura, e viola saturi che ricordano fiori carnosi o bacche tropicali. Ogni tinta sembra avere una consistenza, un sapore, una temperatura. Sono colori vivi, vischiosi, che lasciano traccia.

The Humid palette is a visceral and hypnotic blend of colors that seem to flow directly from the sap of a tropical, fertile and pulsating nature.

The tones move between the hot and the humid, between the light filtered by the vegetation and the dense shadow of the deep forest. The browns are burnt, intense, like bark warmed by the sun, while next to them climb vivid and changeable greens: from acid green, to more precious shades almost liquid in their brilliance. Giving rhythm to the palette is a papaya orange, intense and juicy reds like ripe pulp, and saturated purples that recall fleshy flowers or tropical berries. Each shade seems to have a consistency, a flavor, a temperature. They are lively, viscous colors that leave a trace.
